

Baijnath Chaudhary GCW Nangal Chaudhary

Institutional development plan

Session : 2019 to 2024

IDP is being developed for growth and progress of institution over specific period insuring a concerted efforts towards achieving its vision and mission.

Institutional development plan for improving academic qualities:-

Development of teaching and learning student centric through more and more co-curricular activities like group discussions, seminar on important topic given in curriculum, completion of project work properly where assigned in some subjects.

1. Implementation of robust assessment and evaluation method to evaluate outcomes of learning and progress of student. This will be done by testing student performance through formal and informal means.
2. To ensure teachers participation in training programmes organises by various institutions, agencies and academic bodies to enhance knowledge about new methods for subject enrichment.
3. Providing support to the students through tutorial class, mentors mentees relationship.
4. To ensure use of computer technologies in teaching to make teaching effective and more understanding.
5. To develop feedback system for students, teachers and alumni for providing feedback to college council regarding satisfaction of students.
6. To ensure teacher for organizing more and more extra curricular activities among the students like anniversary celebrations, festival celebrations, celebrations of important days and events, lectures related with awareness for example health, social evils environment sustainability, legal issues and traffic rules etc.

Institutional development plan for infrastructure development

1. To modify traditional classroom into smart classroom.
2. Strengthening of library books, magazine, newspaper, offline journals and subscription of online journals.
3. To fulfill laboratory with modern equipments with safety measures
4. Purchase of sport equipments to provide more sport facilities to the students.
5. To prepare proposals for parking and canteen for granting budget to dept. of higher education.
6. To develop reading room connected with library to avail more facility and develop reading habit.
7. To develop grass lawn and plantation for the staff and students to enjoy natural environment.
8. To create awarness among the students for plastics and harmful materials free institution.

Institutional development plan for strengthening governance and management

1. Implementation of pre decided roles and responsibilites of each staff even in the some students. Some senior students may also contribute their role in progress of college work.
2. Assigning role of head in various committees to develop effective leadership quality.
3. To plan academic activities in the beginning of session for smooth sunning of the academic curriculum through out the session.
4. To include students in organizing co-curricular activities for the development of managerial skill.
5. To develop transparent process of purchasing among teachers and officials.
6. To develop skills for documentation of properties and to ensure it's functioning.

Principal
B.C. Govt. College for Women,
Nangal Chaudhary